

Portrait of an Assassin: Obama's Revenge

James Petras

The events leading to the assassination of the Russian Ambassador to Turkey has a long and torturous trail.

The beginning and end are found in President Obama's attempt to militarily encircle and discredit Russia through massive propaganda and sanctions. Obama built military bases on Russia's borders; organized a putsch in the Ukraine; launched violent attacks on Russian allies in Libya and Syria; and encircled China, Russia's ally in Asia.

Obama proceeded to organize Turkey, the EU, Saudi Arabia, Israel and vassal regimes in the Baltic and Balkan countries to dispatch arms, Special Forces and finances to terrorists mercenaries invading Syria, in order to oust Russian bases.

Central to Obama's anti-Russian legacy was to ensure the election of former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton. Obama worked with Clinton for five years to degrade Russia. To continue, Obama worked in tandem with the Clinton electoral machine to defeat Donald Trump because he was opposed to the anti-Russian campaign.

As the electoral campaign proceeded in Trump's favor, Obama turned to the intelligence apparatus to intervene in the electoral process. In order to secure Clinton's victory and heighten efforts to overthrow Russia's elected government, Obama fabricated a massive campaign attributing the revelations of Clinton's illegal correspondence to Russian hackers working with Trump.

Trump's defeat of Clinton was a strategic loss to Obama's efforts to overthrow Putin. Obama, in response, launched the most intense and virulent propaganda blitz against Russia since the early 1950's. The mass media went 24/7 claiming Russian penetration of the US electoral system; the subversion of US democracy; and 'decisive' collaboration between Putin and Trump in determining the election.

Academics, journalists, the CIA and the rest of the intelligence agencies were recruited, primed and launched in the anti-Trump, anti-Russian campaign.

Obama's campaign against Trump failed. The recount and Electoral College ploys were defeated. The courts, electoral officials and voters decided against Clinton-Obama.

Obama was enraged to the point of mental instability by a series of strategic defeats in wars and elections. The invasions of Iraq and Afghanistan resulted in prolonged losing wars. The Libyan intervention led to unending wars. Israel and its US cohort insulted, humiliated and led Obama by the nose, securing billions in handouts and the appointment of top Zionist officials. Obama's encirclement and sanctions policy against Russia failed to undermine Putin's presidency.

Obama faced a legacy of failure, defeats and disgrace.

With Trump's triumph and Russian-Syrian military success in Aleppo, Obama's 'string broke'. He blamed Russia for his failures. He totally ignored the votes that elected Trump. He brushed off the hand counted recount and Court decisions which validated Clinton,s defeat. Obama's blackmail and coercion of the Electors failed to change the outcome of the Electoral College. The street disruptions and calls to impeach Trump failed to gain traction.

Obama denied reality , embracing a paranoid vision of a deep Russian takeover.

Obama publically declared he would openly and covertly pursue revenge, retaliation and deadly assaults on Russia.

Obama pressed forward to prevent Trump's election, preparing to release a CIA fabricated report of the President -elect's betrayal of America on the eve of his inauguration.

Obama struck at Russia escalating from added sanctions to assassination.

The Russian ambassador to Turkey was assassinated by a Turkish policeman who was a member of the US backed Fethullah Gulen movement. The Gulenist assassin echoed Obama's propoganda line, accusing Russia of destroying Aleppo and its people.

The US mass media repeated the killer/Obama's justification of the killing.

The murder and justification happened a few days after Obama promised a 'secret' and swift assault on Russia.

Trump sensing Obama's resort to violent retaliation against Russia, and the likelihood he would turn the gun to 'Putin's accomplice', the President-elect decided to take precautionary measures, he replaced Obama's secret service by his private security guards.

Conclusion

We live in extraordinarily dangerous times. A deranged violent President is in command of a willing media and an intelligence apparatus ready and willing to obey.

There is little doubt that the murder of the Russian Ambassador will be the beginning of a cycle of violent assassinations. It is certain that Putin and Trump will take the appropriate defensive measures.

With a psychotic, frustrated and failed President refusing to concede defeat, we enter the beginning and most sinister period prior to his exit.
